Annual Meeting in Review – On Sunday, January 26, overall Park and financial reports were reviewed. Joe and Sharon Heimann, rental managers, reported 10 weddings and 25 family or business events are booked for 2015 – exceeding the 34 total rentals in 2014. Current board members were re-elected. Along with a thank you for the huge continuous support, President Woelfel noted a need for more volunteers to cover lawn, garden and rental responsibilities.

Tuck Pointing the Museum/Chapel. Estimates were procured for repairing the deteriorating mortar joints of our limestone Chapel (circa 1876). We're in urgent need for a volunteer to search out grants to preserve our Wisconsin State Landmark. Please call any board member.

Please call any board member to join us for the fun. Weather permitting.
