Volunteerism Opportunities – As popularity of renting the Chapel and Hall increases, we are reaching out to you, our valued supporters for help on the day of rentals. Duties include: opening the buildings and returning after the event to check that all doors are locked, lights are out and no water is running.

Judy Koehler, resident ‘Garden Fairy’ retires! Thanks to her guidance, our gardens have flourished – but need spiffing up regularly. As Judy moves her magic touch to her twin grand babies, a full time job, plus a new business, we will need help. Please grow our call list. To help out occasionally –or regularly, call Sharon Heimann 920.849.9592

Chapel during
‘Brat in the Park’

Join Hands Day with Catholic Financial Life – The Park was spring cleaned inside and out with the help of Pine Creek 4-H Club, Advanced Disposal and Park members. The group also completed ditch clean up for the Adopt-a-Highway program. Hats off to everyone that helps make the Park a nicer place for all our guests.

‘Brat in the Park’ Success – Hope you all enjoyed a day of ‘summer food’ –fresh from the grille at our spring fund raising event. “Charlie and Rough Around the Edges”, the Museum/Chapel open house, face painting and balloon animal making were all highlights of the day. Cheers to all that made this event a wonderful success!

Calendar Photo Feature – The 1939 Hayton Team of the Calumet County Softball League was featured in the 2014 Chilton State Bank historical calendar. Thanks to Kathy Reiser for submitting the photo on behalf of the Park. To view the many treasures at our Chapel Museum, call Kathy for an appt., 920-849-9281.
