Spring Cleanup and 'Brat in the Park' Review – A huge thanks to the many volunteers & donors that made this annual spring event successful. It all starts with shedding the remnants of winter from the grounds and fulfilling our 'Adopt a Highway' obligation. Then onto the day itself with those that set up, grill, serve, sell tickets, bartend, and, and, and... you get it– and so do we– as we thank 'the village' that gets this all done!

Wedding History of St. Martin – Kathy, our museum curator displayed a wedding dress worn by Cecilia Woelfel when she walked down the aisle in St. Martin Church and married Otto Daun on May 15, 1934. The dress was donated to the museum by Cecilia's daughter, Marlene Schwartz. It was shown with a replica of her wedding bouquet which consisted of greens and calla lilies. The wedding reception and dinner took place at the home of Cecilia's parents, Frank and Gertrude (Daniels) Woelfel.

All are Welcome – This photo is proof that the Park is not only for the young, but everyone that's young at heart. Come to play or enjoy a stroll in fresh air with a fabulous view. Or if you have more 'important' matters please give Sharon a call for a personal conversation about our Chapel, Gazebo and Social Hall venue for wedding, family or business events. 920-340-0001.
