Spring Cleanup and ‘Brat in the Park’ Review – This annual spring event was super-successful –thanks to many donors and volunteers. In prep, the grounds and buildings were spring cleaned and we fulfilled our ‘Adopt a Highway’ obligation. High five to those that set up, grill, serve, sell tickets, bartend, cleanup, Laybrinth rock tour guides and, and, and... we sincerely thank ‘the village’ that gets this all done!

History of St. Martin – Kathy, our museum curator shared another enlightening display. The staff that Jerry, Gerard and Rich Kolbe are holding in this picture was once held by their grandfather. A parish photo circa 1909, showed the congregation, the four magnificent banners (top photo) and Joseph Kolbe holding the staff. The Kolbe’s were very happy to be connected with the staff. Your research is priceless, Kathy!

All are Welcome – Come, capture and broadcast the beauty of our fabulous view anytime –as Betsy Benz did. She shared this photo while attending a celebration.
