Recognition & Dedication, Sunday, Sept. 27, 2027 at 1:00 pm – We are hosting our annual Fall event to show off the Park's newest additions, and we want our phenomenal members and their guests right there with us. Our supporters and volunteers have worked their magic yet again to make this place beautiful. Come for the community celebration, stay for the treats, and enjoy a bountiful side order of good conversation.

Sips & Slurps in the Park? – Since 2009, we've poured a ton of love, hard work, and–literally–home-brewed beer and wine into this annual favorite. You've always shown up and filled the room with amazing energy, but this year, we're pausing to let the vines rest. Don't worry, our glasses aren't half empty, they are overflowing with fresh ideas! We're brewing up something entirely new. More to come on that next big fundraiser in early 2027!

World Labyrinth Day – Sixteen people joined the globe as they walked the Labyrinth of Gratitude on May 2. The book Stone Soup and a lunch of soup was enjoyed after. Bonus happening–the Kaleidoscope and Labyrinth were blessed by Fr. Carl Diederichs.
Join Kathleen next year on May 1, 2027.

'Brat in the Park' Review – Yay, we had a new little green and yellow helper at Spring clean-up. Plus we fulfilled our 'Adopt a Highway'obligation. Special thanks to Catholic Financial Life who matched funds. We couldn't pull all this off without our amazing community. Thank you for supporting this fundraising event in every way – even by just grabbing a brat.

Chuck Schknecht – Since the Park's inception and as past Board Member, the brains, kindness, smiles and support of Chuck truly made the Park a better place.
May he find eternal peace, admiring and guiding us from his 'Place of Honor' in heaven.
